

10 In-Demand Works on Artsy This Week

● Beatrice Sapsford sept. 7, 2020 8:00am

In this weekly series, Artsy’s Curatorial team offers a look at the artworks that are currently gaining traction among collectors on Artsy. Looking at our internal data, we offer a selection of works that Artsy members are engaging with through inquiries, bids, page views, and saves. The following pieces are culled from recent online auctions and art fairs hosted on Artsy, as well as exhibitions and works added by our gallery partners.

Saidou Dicko

This photograph by self-taught painter and photographer Saidou Dicko received significant attention this past week with a number of collectors placing inquiries on it. The piece, created earlier this year, is representative of the artist’s style of painting over photographs; Dicko aims to capture the essence of the moment and the subject. The piece featured in Afikaris’s most recent show, “Un été sans fin.”

Saidou Dicko, The butterfly (2020)

Saidou Dicko
The butterfly, 2020
Afikaris
Sold

Browse available lots by Saidou Dicko

Source : <https://www.artsy.net/article/artsy-editorial-10-in-demand-works-artsy-week-09-07-20>